

Dear God, Thank You for this beautiful world.

Dear God,

We thank You for the beautiful world that You have created.

The mountains, the oceans, the sky, the flowers, and the trees are all a testament to Your love and power.

Psalm 19:1 says, "The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of his hands."

We are grateful for the sunshine, the rain, and the changing seasons. We are amazed by the animals The fish the birds and the insects, and the way that everything works together in harmony.

Psalm 104:24 says, "How many are Your works, Lord! In wisdom You made them all; the earth is full of Your creatures."

We pray that we will always remember to take care of the world that You have given us, and to be good stewards of all of Your creation.

Genesis 2:15 says, "The Lord God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to work it and take care of it."

Thank You for the beauty that surrounds us.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Dear God, I feel scared.

Dear God,

We come to You today feeling scared.

We may be worried about something that is happening in our lives, or we may be afraid of something that might happen in the future.

Psalm 56:3 says, "When I am afraid, I put my trust in You."

We know that You are always with us and that You love us. We ask that You would give us Your peace, and that You would help us to trust in You.

Isaiah 41:10 says, "So do not fear, for I am with You; do not be dismayed, for I am Your God. I will strengthen You and help You; I will uphold You with my righteous right hand."

We ask that You would give us the strength and courage to face our fears, and that You would help us to remember that You are always with us.

Deuteronomy 31:6 says, "Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or terrified because of them, for the Lord Your God goes with You; he will never leave You nor forsake You."

Thank You for being our protector and for being always by our side.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Thank You God for this New Day

Dear God,

We thank You for this new day that You have given us. We are grateful for the gift of life and the opportunity to start fresh and to see what new adventures and opportunities this day will bring.

Psalm 118:24 says, "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it."

We thank You for the beauty of the sunrise, for the birds singing and the flowers blooming, for the warmth of the sun, and for the cool breeze.

We are grateful for the love, joy, and peace that You have given us.

Psalm 27:14 says, "Wait for the Lord; be strong and take heart and wait for the Lord."

We ask that You would guide us, protect us and be with us through this new day. We pray that we will be able to make the most of this day, to be productive and to be a blessing to others.

Psalm 143:8 says, "Cause me to hear Your loving kindness in the morning, for I trust in You. Cause me to know the way in which I should walk, for I lift up my soul to You. I put my life in Your hands!"

Thank You for Your love, care, and provision.

We are grateful for this new day, and we look forward to all that You have in store for us.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Thank God for the day that passed.

Dear God,

As we lay down to sleep, we thank You for the day that has passed.

We are grateful for the moments of laughter, love, and joy that we shared with our family and friends and for the experiences that have helped us to grow.

Psalm 4:8 says, "In peace, I will lie down and sleep, for You alone, Lord, make me dwell in safety."

We thank You for the food we have eaten, for the clothes we have worn.

and for the shelter we have to sleep under. We are grateful for the safety and protection that You have provided for us throughout the day.

Psalm 23:4 says, "Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me."

We ask for Your forgiveness for any wrongs we have done and for Your help in doing better tomorrow.

We pray for those who are suffering, for those who are alone, and for those who need Your love and care.

Psalm 91:4 says, "He will cover You with his feathers, and under His wings, You will find refuge; his faithfulness will be Your shield and protection."

We rest in knowing that You are always with us and will watch over us as we sleep.

Thank You for Your love and protection.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Dear God, Help me to make good choices.

Dear God,

We come to You today asking for Your help and guidance as we make choices. We know that sometimes it can be hard to know the right thing to do, and we want to make choices that will honour You and bring You glory.

Proverbs 3:5-6 says, "Trust in the Lord with all Your heart and lean not on Your own understanding; in all Your ways submit to him, and he will make Your paths straight."

We ask that You give us wisdom and that You help us to see things from Your perspective. We pray that You guide us to make good choices that will bring You honour.

James 1:5 says, "If any of You lacks wisdom, You should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to You."

We know that we can't do this on our own, and we rely on Your help and guidance. Thank You for being a loving Father who is always with us and wants the best for us.

Psalms 32:8 says, "I will instruct You and teach You in the way You should go; I will counsel You with my loving eye on You."

Thank You for always being with us and guiding us on the right path.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Dear God, I feel worried.

Dear God,

We come to You today feeling worried.

We may be worried about something that is happening in our lives, or we may be worried about something that might happen in the future.

We remember how Jesus said in Matthew 6:25-27, "Therefore I tell You, do not worry about Your life, what You will eat or drink; or about Your body, what You will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothes? Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet Your heavenly Father feeds them. Are You not much more valuable than they? ``Can any one of You by worrying add a single hour to Your life?"

We know that we can't control everything that happens in our lives, and we ask for Your help to let go of the things we can't control and trust in You. We ask for Your peace and comfort to surround us and for Your love to guide us.

Isaiah 26:3 says, "You will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are steadfast because they trust in You."

We ask that You give us the strength and courage to face our worries and help us remember that You are always with us and will take care of us.

Psalms 55:22 says, "Cast Your cares on the Lord, and he will sustain You; he will never let the righteous fall."

Thank You for being our protector and always being by our side.

In Jesus' name, Amen. `

Dear God, Thank You for this food.

Dear God,

We thank You for the food that You have provided for us. We are grateful for the nourishment it gives us and are blessed to have enough to eat.

Psalm 145:15 says, "The eyes of all look to You, and You give them their food at the proper time."

We thank You for the farmers and workers who grow and harvest the food, and for all of the people who work to bring it to our tables.

James 5:7 says, "Be patient, then, brothers and sisters, until the Lord's coming. See how the farmer waits for the land to yield its valuable crop, patiently waiting for the autumn and spring rains."

We also thank You for the opportunity to share the food with others who are in need, and for Your grace that allows us to do so.

Matthew 14:19 says, "Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, Jesus gave thanks and broke the loaves. Then He gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people."

We ask that You would bless the food that we are about to eat, and that You would use it to nourish our bodies and give us strength.

We also ask that You would bless those who are hungry, and provide for them as well.

Thank You for all Your good gifts to us.

In Jesus' name. Amen.

Dear God, I am sorry.

Dear God,

We come to You today feeling sorry. Knowing that we have made mistakes and done things that we shouldn't have done. We ask for Your forgiveness and for Your grace to cover our sins.

1 John 1:9 says, "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness."

We are sorry for the times when we have hurt others, when we have disobeyed You, and when we have not shown love and kindness. We know that we fall short of Your standards, and we need Your help to be better.

Psalm 51:17 says, "The sacrifice You desire is a broken spirit. You will not reject a broken and repentant heart, O God."

We ask for Your strength to turn away from our sins and to follow You more closely. We know we can't do this alone, so we rely on Your help and forgiveness.

Ephesians 1:7 says, "In Him, we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace."

Thank You for Your love and Your willingness to forgive us.

We are grateful for Your grace and mercy.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Dear God, Thank You for my family.

Dear God,

We come to You today to thank You for the gift of family. We are grateful for the love and support that our family gives us, and for the memories and moments that we share together.

Proverbs 22:6 says, "Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old, they will not turn from it."

We ask that You would bless our family and that You would continue to guide and protect us. We ask for Your grace and wisdom as we navigate life's challenges together and for Your help to grow in love and understanding with one another.

Ephesians 4:2-3 says, "Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace."

We also ask that You would be present in our home and guide us to be a light for others and a reflection of Your love and grace.

Colossians 3:14 says, "And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity."

Thank You for the gift of family. We look forward to growing stronger in our relationships as we follow You together.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Dear God, Thank You for the Bible.

Dear God,

We come to You today to thank You for the gift of the Bible.

We are thankful for the caring advice, guidance, and support it gives.

2 Timothy 3:16-17 says, "All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work."

Thank that when we read our Bibles, You speak to us.

We ask that You help us understand the Bible and the lessons it teaches us.

Help us to grow closer to You and be more like Jesus every day.

Help us to love reading and studying Your word.

Thank You for giving us the Bible to help us grow closer to You.

Psalms 119:105 says, "Your word is a lamp for my feet, a light on my path."

Thank You that the Bible guides us and helps us know how to live.

Please help us remember the Bible's teachings and apply them to our lives today.

Psalms 119:11 says, "I have hidden Your word in my heart that I might not sin against You."

Thank You that the Bible helps to protect us from doing wrong.

Lord, we pray for those in the world who don't have access to a Bible.

We pray they will find a way to learn about Your word and be able to experience its life-changing power.

We thank You for continuing to reveal Yourself to us through Your word.

Help us to read it each and every day,

In Jesus' name, Amen.
